Library Notes

All reviewers seem to be of one accord that Hugh MacLennan's new novel "The Watch That Ends the Night," now in the local library, is excellent. The story has an Enoch Arden theme. A flash back takes place in the lives of the three main characters. Much of the action takes place in Montreal, in the late thirties. The spirit of the times is vividly portrayed. The reader will, in all likelihood, leave this book with the feeling that however brief, life itself is a gift to treasure.

25th Anniversary Is Celebrated

Celebrating the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Will Callaghan of the Vulcan district, an anniversary supper was prepared and served by their four daughters on Saturday, April 4. Relatives from Calgary and Didsbury were present for the occasion. Following the cutting of the beautifully decorated anniversary cake, their youngest daughter, Jean, on behalf of the family, presented Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan with a silver tea set.

Later on in the evening a surprise party was held for the bride and groom of 25 years ago, with approximately 29 relatives and friends present from Calgary, Didsbury, Red Deer and the Vulcan district. During the evening three tables of court whist were played, with refreshment being served by three of the daughters.

Doug Galbraith presented Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan with a set of silverware, on behalf of friends and relatives in the district, at which time the couple made a fitting reply.

J. E. Carlson Chairman

Members County Council Committees Appointed

J. E. Carlson was elected Chairman of the County Council for his ninth consecutive term at the organization meeting of the new council held in the County Building on Friday, April 3, 1959. Mr. Carlson had been re-elected by acclamation as Councillor for his division at the municipal elections held earlier this year. He has held the office of Chairman since the County was formed in January 1951, and prior to that time, he had been Reeve of the Municipal District of Vulcan No. 29.

Jack Deltz was elected Deputy-Chairman for the ensuing term of six months, and D. D. McQueen was re-appointed Secretary-Treasurer.

The Councillors set up committees as follows: School Committee: J. M. McKay, Chairman; C. W. Green, A. McAllister, A. Cutforth, Guy Vaisey, representing the Town of Vulcan, and George Smith representing the Villages of Carmangay and Champion. No appointment has yet been made for the School Committee member to represent the Village of Arrowwood, as there had been no recommendation received in the office from that area.

Jack Deltz is Chairman of the Municipal Committee, with Councillors Ivan Haga, D. A. McNiven, F. E. Hubka and M. Willard. These are the same as the 1958 committee.

Councillors Carlson, McNiven, Irwin and Haga were appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Vulcan Municipal Hospital District. Councillors Carlson and Hubka were appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Little Bow Municipal Hospital District. Jack Deltz will represent the County on the Bassano Municipal Hospital Board and C. W. Green was appointed to the High River Municipal Hospital Board. Donald A. McNiven will represent the County on the Foot-hills Full Time Health Unit, and Mr. Green will be the County's representative to the Wyndham Park Committee.

The Agricultural Service Board is composed of the same members as last year, R. S. Irwin, Chairman; A. Cutforth, representing the Council; Ross Walker and Ken Miller, representing the farmers of the area. It was noted that there is no appointment yet to cover the Department of Agriculture representative, as there had not been a name submitted owing to the fact that the position of District Agriculturist at Claresholm is vacant.

Councillors were also appointed representatives to the Boards of Directors on the various seed cleaning plants, which are now operating in the County. Mr. Irwin was appointed to the Blackie organization, Mr. Cutforth to the Vulcan plant, and Frank Hubka to the Carmangay Seed Cleaning Association.

Councillors decided to hold the regular meetings, the same as formerly, that is: School Committee meeting on Monday, the Municipal Committee meeting on Wednesday and the Council meeting on Friday of the second complete week of the month. All meetings will start at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Curling Club Banquet

Curlers' Artificial Ice Plant "All Paid For"

The Vulcan Curling Club's $14,000 artificial ice plant installed at the start of the 1958-59 season is now completely paid for and the club's bank debt at the present time is only about $500, according to treasurer Pat Walker's financial report presented at the annual club meeting held in the Lodge Hall Wednesday evening, April 1.

Receipts during the year included $2,300 in paid-in-advance dues and $1,669 received from the Ladies' Curling Club. Approximately $220 a month is received in storage charges for wheat stored in the other half of the curling rink. Total receipts for the year amounted to approximately $17,000.

President Ray Wellman was chairman of the dinner meeting and the banquet was prepared and served by members of the Ladies' Curling Club of which Mrs. Viola Mensinger is president.

Mr. Wellman extended thanks to those members who had assisted to a great extent in the installation of artificial ice. The plant is now paid for, he said, the club has only a small deficit, there is a strong membership and the future looks bright. He also thanked the ladies for the great amount of work they had done during the year, particularly their very successful operation of the lunch counter, returns from which had greatly aided the club's finances.

How To Live Longer

Somewhere about the age of forty, husbands and fathers usually get around to giving serious attention to things like their wills, their estates and what would happen if inevitable death were to come along unexpectedly and unhappily early. They have acquired insurance and perhaps investments over the years, but it is usually around age forty (according to psychologists) that the enormity of the whole thing comes home and they force themselves into serious study of the grim possibilities. Now, for the first time, in most cases, there is a good long look taken at succession duties.

The look at succession duties frequently concludes with the remark that a tax-ridden Canadian today, young or old, just cannot afford to die.

This is an expression, of course, and as one young student of succession duties remarked, it is not quite true. On becoming dead, one has nothing to worry about. It is the family and successors who have the worry about whether or not they can afford the loss of the family tax-earner.

Having reached this clear, unemotional conclusion, one such tax-earner said he would hurry home and explain it to the potential successors, a young, pleasant wife and three fine but somewhat exhausting children. His idea was that, once his family was convinced of the necessity of keeping him alive, they might among them organize a few more life-extending devices such as slippers and pipe after dinner, and a perpetual dispensation from drying the dishes.

It seems worth the try, though most wives and children are almost as tough bargainers as the Department of National Revenue.

HOW FERTILIZER BOOSTS your PROFITS from CATTLE!

YOU CAN MAKE UP TO $32.00 PER ACRE MORE

Test work on the Prairies has shown that increased forage yields from pasture and hayland can easily be obtained with the use of commercial fertilizer. By applying fertilizer at recommended rates, yields could be doubled; 150 lbs. per acre of Nitraprills (Ammonium Nitrate—33.5-0-0) could bring an increase of 1 ton dry hay per acre. Corresponding increases could also be realized from fertilizing pasture. In the table below, note that the increased return figure takes the cost of fertilizer into consideration. An increased return of $32.00 per acre is certainly worthwhile.

Fertilizer per acre ...	150 lbs. Nitraprills (Cost $8.50) *
Increased forage yield per acre (dry hay basis) ...	1 Ton
Additional Beef Produced ...	200 lbs. (Worth $39.00)
YOUR INCREASED RETURN PER ACRE ...	$32.50

* Fertilizer cost figures per acre are approximate.

Your net profit per acre — your profit after you've deducted the cost of growing the crop — gets a real boost from Elephant Brand Fertilizer! This applies to any crop — any soil. Your Elephant Brand dealer is shown below. Contact him today!

This minister of finance
says —

"Yes, we can afford it!"

Mother's decision has not been arrived at lightly. Her peek into her purse is anything but casual—for as family minister of finance she is also keeper of the budget. She weighs every important purchase carefully, because she has a dozen places to put every dollar... and only so many dollars.

The same problem—a dozen places for every dollar—is a familiar one to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa. His budget is around six billion dollars. This very large sum of money is spent through various government departments. It's no secret how the Minister of Finance obtains this money. He gets it largely in taxes from millions of Canadians like you. If he spends more than he gets from you, he must turn around and borrow from you the amount he has overspent... or else create new money.

The creation of new money is one factor that leads to inflation—when the dollar buys less and less. So, as a thrifty Canadian, you are wise to ask government only for those services you are willing to pay for... with taxes.

Personally you try to pay as you go, to live within your income. It's important that government try to do the same thing.

You want to live well now and to realize all your ambitions for the best possible future. That future is tied up with a sound dollar—a dollar whose purchasing power you can depend on.

And the disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.

As a Christian let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God.

What is a Christian? If you compare him with a king, he adds priestly sanctity to royal dignity. The king's royalty often lieth only in his crown, but with a Christian it is infused into his inmost nature. He is as much above his fellows through his new birth, as a man is above the beasts that perish. Surely he ought to bear himself, in all his dealings, as one who is not of the multitude; but chosen out of this world, distinguished by sovereign grace, written among the "peculiar people" and who therefore cannot grovel in the dust as others nor live after the manner of the worlds citizens. Let the dignity of your nature, and the brightness of your prospects, O believer in Christ, constrain you to cleave unto holiness, and to avoid the very appearance of evil.

Teach us Thy name to own, whilst waiting, Lord, for Thee; Unholy and sin to shun, from all untruth to flee.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In view of the coming vote on hail suppression, the following statement should be interesting.

—J. G. Middleton
Midco Farms Ltd.
Champion.

Statement of the American Meteorological Society on Weather Modification and Control

The following statement was released by the American Meteorological Society on April 30, 1957, and is reproduced for the information of Weather Bureau meteorologists and others as a summary of professional opinion on a subject of current interest:

"The Council of the American Meteorological Society has assumed the responsibility for issuing periodic statements on the scientific aspects of weather modification and control. Two previous statements were issued in 1951 and in 1953. In view of the additional information on this subject that has become available in the interim the Council deems it desirable to issue a revised statement of its opinion at this time.

"1. The seeding of supercooled cloud with dry ice will usually convert at least a portion of the cloud to ice crystals. Under appropriate conditions such seeding may release variable amounts of precipitation from fairly deep and active cumulus clouds in which the natural release of precipitation has not already started. Small, inactive cumulus clouds are usually dissipated when they are seeded with dry ice. Holes or valleys may be produced in supercooled layer clouds or supercooled fogs by seeding them with dry ice.

"2. The injection of water drops or hygroscopic salt particles into active, warm (non-supercooled) cumulus clouds may release some rain. Small, inactive, warm cumulus may often be partially or completely dissipated by seeding them from above with water drops or other particles; such dissipation may occasionally be accompanied by the release of very light rain.

"3. In some cases warm fog and stratus may be dissipated in restricted regions by the use of certain hygroscopic materials.

"4. At temperatures below about -5 degrees C. silver iodide crystals are known to affect supercooled clouds in much the same way as dry ice. The frequent absence of clear-cut results following the operation of ground-based silver iodide generators is believed to be due to one or more of the following causes: a. the failure of the seeding material to reach the supercooled clouds; b. the absence of clouds that could be affected by seeding; c. the decay of the silver iodide; d. the presence of an ample supply of natural ice crystals; e. topographical influences which defy quantitative measurement.

"5. Cloud seeding acts only to trigger the release of precipitation from existing clouds. The release of substantial amounts of precipitation by either natural or artificial means requires the pre-existence of an extensive moisture supply in the form of moist air currents and of active cloud-forming processes. For this reason the meteorological conditions most favorable for the artificial release of precipitation are very much the same as those which usually lead to the natural release of precipitation. This factor plus the extreme natural variability of precipitation makes the evaluation of the effects of seeding difficult and often inconclusive.

"6. Evaluation performed by independent agencies have yielded reasonably convincing evidence of increases of precipitation due to the operation of ground-based silver iodide generators only for operations conducted in cold weather in regions where forced lifting of the air over a mountain range is an important factor. No convincing evidence has been presented which indicates that ground-based silver iodide seeding affects the amount or character of the precipitation over flat country. This does not prove that there are no such effects but suggests that, if present, they are too small to be detected by statistical analyses of data available to this date.

"7. In the absence of a truly quantitative theory of precipitation the best present means for obtaining a quantitative estimate of the effect of seeding on precipitation is through the statistical evaluation of randomized cloud seeding experiments. The randomization is necessary to insure valid interpretation of the results, and a long series of such experiments may be necessary to detect small effects.

"8. Present knowledge of atmospheric processes offers no real basis for the belief that the weather or climate of a large portion of the country can be significantly modified by cloud seeding. It is not intended to rule out the possibility of large-scale modifications of the weather at some future time, but it is believed that, if possible at all, this will require methods that alter the large scale atmospheric circulations, possibly

For the third year in a row a cow on the farm of Fred Bertschy has given birth to twin calves. The cow was destined for the market last year but jumped the corral and had to be kept over the winter. A farmer shouldn't sell a cow like that.

Home for Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertschy were sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. V. Culp and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oberholzer and family of Arrowwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armstrong and Faye of Latham.

A company known as Trapp Company, reported to be from Lethbridge and Bassano, have made headquarters on the farm yard of Leslie Greaves. They have leased a large tract of land on the Indian Reservation just east and north of Majorville road and are breaking the grass land with a view to farming it on a large scale. It is reported they intend to sow several thousand acres of flax this spring.

Mrs. Buford Culp of Arrowwood spent a few days during the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch.

The weather has really been a record breaker for this time of the year. Geese, ducks, swans, crows and robins have all been around for a visit so they can't all be wrong, however much as the nice weather is enjoyed a good shower or two would be welcome. For a day or two last week dust could be seen on the west and no one wants to see dust storms again.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gore and family were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Mabel Deitz in Calgary. Aubrey participated in the Elks Bonspiel and lost out in the finals.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Heather returned last week from a vacation in the southern USA. Alf had battled an attack of flu while on holidays; after they returned, Mrs. Heather decided it was her turn. Margaret Winch is over at Queenstown assisting Mrs. Boyd with some painting and spring cleaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Henry spent the Easter weekend at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kiemle at Morrin. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Clifford Riggs of Morrin who is a guest at the home of her father George and Mrs. Kiemle. Mrs. Prentice had the misfortune through changes in the radiation balance.

"9. All cloud seeding operations should be considered as experiments since the techniques are still under development and there is no sound basis for the quantitative estimation of the results in advance of the operation. As experiments they should be designed primarily to yield optimum scientific results. There is good reason to believe that improved returns from cloud seeding will result from a sound experimental approach and this should be fostered by all concerned."

to have her hand caught in the car door and the resulting gash had to have four stitches to close.

Among the visitors for the afternoon was Mrs. Leslie Greaves of Calgary, a former member.

The lunch committee served a lovely lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Monner.

Mervin and Francis Goldthorpe had a house-warming on Saturday. Not the conventional type, but just as effective. They were burning weeds in the yard when the fire spread into the stacks of bales which were standing near the house. Some neighbors came upon the scene to help watch that the fire didn't spread to any of the nearby buildings, and stayed until it was out. Fortunately all that burned were the bales. Francis was kept busy making coffee and sandwiches.

Miss Shannon Broderick was a visitor over the holidays of Ruth Marshall. Dick and Elizabeth were Sunday visitors at the Marshall home and Shannon accompanied them home.

Rodney Broderick has been out on the farm during the holidays.

Shower Honoring

About 25 friends of Miss Donna Doane, April 11 bride-elect, honored her on April, at the home of Mrs. Alberta Burgess, assisted by Mrs. Nora Campbell and Mrs. Gladys Rushfield.

The evening began with a short contest on "Love", won by Della Doane. The next contest was that each lady was given the name of a song which she had to draw a picture of, then everyone had to guess the name of the song depicted by the picture. Beverly Campbell was the winner of this contest. Mrs. Bertie Oldfield, Mrs. Shannon Reynolds and Mrs. Doris Suitor participated in a "celery-eating" contest. Mrs. Chloe Marshall, Mrs. Ruby Wyatt and Mrs. Clara Tharle gave Donna a few pointers in a "Husband Calling" contest.

Mrs. Burgess presented Donna with a pansy table centerpiece, which she had made. The bride-elect was seated beneath a "rainbow" and Mrs. Gladys Rushfield presented her with a "Pot of Gold" at the end of the rainbow wishing her every happiness in her new home. Donna was assisted in opening her gifts by her mother and her three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Steiner, Delores Doane and Penny Doane.

Donna very graciously thanked everyone for the many lovely and useful gifts and extended an invitation to everyone to visit her and Jack in Claresholm.

A very tasty lunch was provided by the ladies of the district. During lunch Mrs. Della Doane was presented with a birthday cake and everyone sang, "Happy Birthday" to her.

Letter To Editor

Dear Sir:

Jerry Jones, Taber; Bill Watson, Travers; Mike, Speaker, Enchant, and Raymond Skretting Vauxhall, travelled to the hall suppression area north of Calgary on March 13-14, and spoke to about 15 farmers in the three municipalities up there and spoke to the staffs of all the municipal offices to attempt to get a general public opinion on hall suppression.

We only talked to two farmers that were against hall suppression. One farmer said that he hadn't had hall since hall suppression started but thought that it would take seven to eight years to prove anything. We met other farmers who were sure that hall suppression is effective; some emphatically so; and did not wish to be without its protection.

The office of Kneehill M.D. reported to us that a large storm came through last year which did very little damage. The farmers there were sure that it would have wiped out a large area of the M.D. if hall suppression had not been in operation. There were four or five polling stations in the last plebiscite that registered 100% in favor of hall suppression.

—Raymond Skretting, Vauxhall and to David for the Gold Medalion, in Life Saving courses.

A new Canadian citizen received a cordial welcome in the Kinnondale district, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kock, April 3, when Harry Halbegwachs arrived with his bride from Jamaica. After a very enjoyable and appreciated visit and dinner, the happy couple drove on to their farm five miles north where they will reside.
